(NO SPAM PROMISE: I am a one-man operation that enjoys photography who has no interest in selling your personal information. I will only email you to inform you about other photography workshops and classes I have to offer.)

Do you consider yourself a beginner, intermediate or advanced photographer?

How long have you been taking photographs with:

a digital camera?

a DSLR?

What do you expect to learn from taking this class?

What are your weaknesses in photography?

What are your strengths photography?

Can you tell me what you feel are the attributes that make a picture a photo rather than just another picture or snapshot?

In order of importance from most to least, what determines the subjective, qualitative beauty of a photograph taken by a DSLR: Camera, Lens, Photographer?
